FROM GRANT'S TOMB.

Mayor of New York Has Bricks to Give to G. A. R. Posts.

NEW YORK, May 5.—Mayor Strong has had stored away in a cell in the basement of the city hall 1,000 bricks from the old tomb of General Grant, which may make him some trouble later on.

About a month ago he received a letter from the commander of an Illinois G. A. R. post asking for one of the bricks of the old tomb as a souvenir. The mayor thought if one post wanted such a souvenir it was likely other posts would also.

He thought it was as well to be prepared for such an emergency. These bricks Mr. Strong intends to give to such posts as may ask for them. As there are 6,396 Grand Army posts in the United States, and it is quite certain that each one will want one of the relics, it will require some smart arithmetic to make both ends meet.

WAR WILL CONTINUE

Greek Cabinet Decides to Fight It Out With the Turks.

PREFERS HIS OWN BRIGADE

Fighting at Velestino Described by a Correspondent With the Turkish Forces.

Greeks Reinforce Their Position With Troops From Volo and Pharsalos—The Turks Capture Kephala.

LONDON, May 5.—The Athens correspondent of The Times says: "The cabinet sat till daybreak (Tuesday) hearing the reports of the ministers from the front and finally resolved to continue the war. General Smolenski has declined to accept the post of chief of staff of the crown prince, as he prefers to remain with his own brigade. The decision of the government is momentous, but it is difficult to say whether it is absolutely final."

VELESTINO.

London Correspondent at the Front Describes the Fighting.

LONDON, May 5.—A correspondent writing from Velestino of the battle there last Friday says the Greeks occupied strong positions. The Turks began the attack under cover of artillery. The response from the Greeks was very feeble.

The Turks gradually gained ground and the Greeks began sending a fusillade to their ranks, but they pushed forward and gained summit after summit, and were soon occupying a strong position while waiting the coming up of the rear of the army. He continues:

"The Greeks were holding a precipitous mountain, but the Turks feigning an attack in front, turned the Greek position and forced the enemy to retire to the second line of defense, which she is now holding. The Turks' center remains quietly before one of the enemies' earth works, while a Greek battery is beginning a duel with a battery planted on our right wing."

"Shortly after the Greek fire slackened and gradually ceased. It had been met by the Turkish left with admirable steadiness and courage. Strong Greek reinforcements were brought up, but the Turkish left resisted the onslaught. During the battle the Turkish center was hidden behind a thick wood, which proved an adequate defense. In the morning two Turkish squadrons charged the Greek position. At first they were successful, but meeting with a larger force, strongly entrenched, they suffered heavily. It is impossible not to admire their courage. They appeared absolutely indifferent to danger."

"I visited the trenches when an attack was expected and I found all except the sentinels sleeping quietly. Strong Greek reinforcements have been brought up from Volo and Pharsalos, so that the Turkish force is now much inferior. The distance between the right and left wings has been greatly extended and the general in command has decided to concentrate his troops on a more favorable position farther back."

In Disgrace.

LONDON, May 5.—The correspondent for The Standard at Constantinople says: "Mustapha Pasha, ex-commander at Jannina, has arrived here under escort. It is believed that he has been degraded and will be court-martialed. According to Edhem Pasha's report the Greek army consists, apart from mountaineers, of a mere conglomeration of plovboys, shopboys, brigands, pickpockets and everything except soldiers."

Turks Capture Kephala.

LONDON, May 5.—The special correspondent for The Times with the Turkish forces at Velestino telegraphs under date of April 30 that the Turks have captured the village of Kephala, at the foot of the pass and adding that with the reinforcements then enroute from Larissa, the Turks would undoubtedly be able to force the defile and, if necessary, capture Velestino.

Intervention Tendered by the Powers.

LONDON, May 5.—An Athens correspondent says that the foreign ministers have tendered the intervention of the powers to Greece but the government has reserved its reply. A dispatch from Pharsalos dated Monday, says it is rumored in the Greek camp that peace will shortly be proclaimed.

MUSICIANS' CONVENTION.

Antinationalists in Control and Labor Federationists Barred.

KANSAS CITY, May 5.—Yesterday's session of the American League of Musicians' convention was an exciting one. Delegates sent by unions of the league, the charters of which were revoked on account of their affiliation with the American Federation of Labor, were denied admission. The New York anti-union labor faction kept the other, or union labor, faction out of the convention and then adopted a new constitution—forever barring them out. The union labor faction will probably organize another convention, and appeals to the court may ensue.

Kentucky Bond Issue Is Void.

LOUISVILLE, May 5.—Judge Toney yesterday handed down an opinion in relation to the recent issue of $588,000 of refunding bonds by the sinking fund. The decision is important to the holders of the 6 per cent bonds which the city seeks to replace with 4 per cents. The court holds that the law of 1894 is unconstitutional and void, and that there is no law in existence in Kentucky for the issuance of refunding bonds.

TROUBLE IS LIKELY.

Matters Assuming a Serious Aspect at Harrodsburg, Ky.

HARRODSBURG, Ky., May 5.—The courthouse was crowded when the alleged tollgate riders under arrest for shooting Gatekeeper Atkinson were brought in for their preliminary examination. The accused had no trouble in giving bond and Friday was set for their examining trial.

William Hendron, another alleged rider, has been lodged in jail, and many other warrants are in the hands of the officers. Affairs are assuming a serious aspect, and threats to burn the town and kill Kimball, the Pinkerton man, have been made.

A west end citizen named Brown met Kimball on the street and used very rough language toward him and threatened to shoot him, it is claimed. The detective kept cool, and thus avoided a difficulty.

Bullet Hole in His Head.

DAYTON, O., May 5.—The body of Wade Porter, an inmate of the Soldiers' home, who was thought mysteriously disappeared recently, has been found lying along the side of the Big Four, where the road crosses the Miami river. There was a bullet hole in his right temple and a bottle by his side. The supposition is that he committed suicide. Porter was 58 years of age and in the war was a member of Company M, Fifth Kansas cavalry.

May Get Life This Time.

HENDERSON, Ky., May 5.—Officers returned yesterday from Hopkinsville with William Loving, David Powell and William Dickinson, who are charged with shooting with intent to kill Louis Metzner, a prominent citizen of this place, last November. They were sent to Hopkinsville at the time to prevent a lynching. Their cases are set for next Monday. All of them have served two terms in prison and it is thought they will get life this time.

Caused by a Defective Flue.

CALDWELL, O., May 5.—A disastrous fire swept this town yesterday destroying two large business structures including the American Express company's office. It was found necessary to telegraph to Cambridge for aid. The entire loss will be fully $75,000 with about $50,000 insurance. The fire originated from a defective flue in James Kirk's harness store.

May Reach $20,000.

CINCINNATI, May 5.—Disclosures of crookedness in the office of the waterworks has created a big sensation. It will take a thorough examination of the books and accounts to get at the exact amount of the shortage, and this work will consume several days. It is believed the amount will reach $15,000 to $20,000.

Ohio Cash.

COLUMBUS, O., May 5.—The counting of the funds in the state treasury shows the following on hand: General revenue fund, $615,739.44; sinking fund, $135,291.23; State university fund, $73,877.44; total, $1,017,294.18.

MANY PEOPLE KILLED.

Terrible Accident at a French Charitable Bazaar in Paris—Fire Causes a Panic.

PARIS, May 5.—Fire broke out late yesterday in a crowded charitable bazaar at which the Duchesse d'Uzes and other well known patronesses were present. A panic followed during which a number of persons were injured. Thirty bodies have been recovered. 25 injured people are under treatment by physicians and many others are reported missing. The bazaar is an annual function, presided over by the leaders of Parisian society.

Enormous crowds of people gathered around the scene of the fire last night. Among them were a large number of French servants inquiring for their mistresses, and the indications are that among the dead are a number of French aristocracy, although it is hoped that the missing ones may be found among the injured who are at the hospitals or other places.

Details show that before the firemen could arrive the roof of the bazaar crashed in, burying numbers of those who had been unable to make their egress from the building.

Very soon after the alarm was given assistance was hurried to the burning bazaar and effective help was rapidly organized between the firemen and the policemen. In spite of the efforts of the firemen, some time elapsed before the charred bodies could be pulled from the burning mass of debris covering the spot which but a short time before had been the scene of so much gaiety.

As the work progressed and the inquiries became more numerous and pressing it was soon that the death rate would be much higher than at first estimated. Police officials early this morning said they believed it to be certain that the number of deaths will exceed 100, recalling the terrible fire at the Opera Comique.

HOW TO FIND OUT.

Fill a bottle or common water glass with urine and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates a diseased condition of the kidneys. When urine stains linen it is positive evidence of kidney trouble. Too frequent desire to urinate or pain in the back, is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in relieving pain in back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passages. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain passing is or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up many times during the night to urinate. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists price fifty cents and one dollar. For a sample bottle and pamphlet, both sent free by mail, mention the Seymour Republican, and send your full post-office address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The proprietors of this paper guarantee its genuineness.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured.

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When the tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result and unless the inflammation can be taken out, and this tube restored to its normal condition or hearing will be destroyed forever, nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness caused by catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Props., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, 75 cents. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

Poisons engendered by food fermenting in a dyspeptic stomach are the direct cause of rheumatism, gout, bronchitis, liver and kidney complaints, asthma, pneumonia and many nervous ailments.

These results are prevented by the use of the Shaker Digestive Cordial, a remedy discovered and prepared by the Shakers of Mount Lebanon, N. Y. It is in itself a food and has power to digest other food taken with it. Thus it rests the diseased stomach and finally masters the worst cases of dyspepsia. It acts promptly and fresh strength and increase of weight soon follows. The first dose taken immediately after eating, abates the pain and distress so dreaded by dyspeptics. Trial bottles—enough to prove its merit—10 cents.

John B. McLean's Great Newspaper.

Without a single exception, there is no newspaper in the United States that has been so successful in the past as the Cincinnati Enquirer; or a more successful publisher than its proprietor, Mr. John B. McLean.

The old-time prices for the Daily Enquirer have been maintained, and its circulation largely increased each year; hard times and cheaper journals failing to arrest its onward march and high appreciation of the public for its true worth and merit.

The Weekly Enquirer at beginning of the campaign year was offered at 50 cents a year, and its circulation increased by the addition of over 200,000 new subscribers; the most substantial and coveted testimonial a publisher could desire.

When asked for the secret of such success, Mr. McLean frankly answers: The Enquirer has no opinions to force upon its patrons, it simply prints the facts and tells the truth that the reader may form his own opinions. By maintaining the price of the paper, more news and greater variety can be furnished, and every class of business interests catered to, which a cheaper journal cannot afford.

The very liberal support given the Enquirer by the public at large, makes incumbent upon the management to serve it faithfully with zeal and enterprise in minor matters as well as those of greater magnitude.

It is estimated that White county's wheat crop will be only about 50 per cent of an average, and its prospect is said to be better than any other county in the state.

Some are planting corn but a majority of farmers have done very little toward their crops yet on account of wet weather. We had a few warm sunny days last week and farmers made good use of their time. A few fields of melons are up and some have out sweet potato plants.

L. M. Cross's garden is a pleasant sight to see at present it being in such fine shape and forming such a contrast to the fields near it which were made so wet by rains and floods, and though it is May still untouched by the plow.

The members of the Salt Creek colony who have known the Rev. Charles P. Eshom, and knew him only to love him, were pained to learn of his death. From the Fairhaven, N. Y., Register.

Mr. James Rowland of this village, states that for twenty-five years his wife has been a sufferer from rheumatism. A few nights ago she was in such pain that she was nearly crazy. She sent Mr. Rowland for the doctor, but he had read of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and instead of going for the physician he went to the store and secured a bottle of it. His wife did not approve of Mr. Rowland's purchase at first, but nevertheless applied the Balm thoroughly and in an hour's time was able to go to sleep. A COSTLY PORTRAIT.
The Price Made Him Gasp, but He Paid and Said Nothing.

Some years ago, when Benjamin Constant came over to this country especially to paint the portrait of a well known New York woman, several other persons took advantage of his being here and gave him orders for their portraits. Among these was a well known man. Shortly after this latter likeness was completed a wealthy westerner who happened to be in this city was entertained at the house of the New Yorker. The westerner saw the portrait and much admired it. "My wife wants me to get my portrait painted," he said. "That's one reason why I'm in New York. I wonder if this French fellow wouldn't do mine too." His host assured him that in all probability the "French fellow" would be only too delighted. Before long the westerner was experiencing all the glory and honor of "sitting for his portrait."

One day some time after this, but before the picture was finished, the westerner was again entertained by his New York friend. The portrait was naturally referred to. "By the way," remarked the westerner, "how much did he charge for your picture?" "Forty-five hundred dollars," was the answer. "Why?" But the westerner went beyond speech. Pale and breathless, he leaned back in his chair, and when he did speak it was simply to gasp forth, "Forty-five hundred dollars!" "Forty-five hundred dollars!" over and over again.

It transpired later that he had made no inquiries as to terms, and that he had never dreamed that the portrait's price would be more than $150. What worried him most was what his wife would say. But the old fellow was game. He first bound the New Yorker over to temporary secrecy, after which he proceeded to go through those sittings to the bitter end without a murmur or a question as to the ultimate cost. Benjamin Constant never knew that the bill for $5,000 (the westerner's portrait was larger than the New Yorker's) that was presented later caused the slightest ripple upon the emotional surface of his patron. But in a certain western home there today hangs a painting the price of which has never yet been revealed to the mistress of the house.—New York Sun.

What She Said.
"Why this look of set despair which has set on your brow for a day or two?" said Tillinghast to Winebiddie.

"Miss Tenspot won't marry me after giving me what I considered a great deal of encouragement and making me imagine she cared for me."

"So she said 'No' did she?"

The rejected one shook his head sadly as he made reply:

"I think I could have stood that, but her reply wounded my sensibilities to the quick."

"She did not taunt you with your poverty, surely?"

"Not at all."

"How did she wound your feelings, then?"

"Well, I asked her to marry me, and she never said a word about its being sudden or asking time to consider; that sort of thing, but she replied—"

"What?"

"Nixy!"—New York World.

ABOUT EQUALLY DIVIDED.

Town Elections Do Not Show Much Change Politically.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 5.—The latest returns from the town elections show that the Democrats made gains in Montgomery county. In Grant county things seem to be slightly mixed, Republicans, Democrats and citizens' tickets being elected. In Clay county the towns most went Republican. At Knightstown the Democrats elected two out of three councilmen, and at Fortville there was a small landslide in their favor. In Washington county the Republicans were generally successful.

Passenger Train Wrecked.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., May 5.—Passenger train No. 2, on the Southern railroad, was wrecked and turned over near Bluff City, 100 miles from Knoxville. Two people are reported killed and others wounded.

TILT IN THE SENATE

Senators Foraker and Gorman Exchange Caustic Compliments.

FREE HOMESTEAD BILL PASSED

Tariff Bill Presented by Senator Aldrich.

Death of Rear Admiral Meade at Washington—Indiana Postmasters—Bellamy Storer Confirmed as Minister to Belgium—General Miles Leaves for Europe.

WASHINGTON, May 5.—Senators Gorman of Maryland and Foraker of Ohio had a lively tilt in the senate yesterday during the consideration of the sundry civil appropriation bill. It occurred when Mr. Foraker offered an amendment appropriating $400,000 for the Tennessee river. This gave Mr. Gorman a text for a severe criticism of reckless extravagance in appropriations.

There was something of a stir when Mr. Foraker rose to reply to Mr. Gorman. It was the maiden speech of the Ohio senator. He said the senator's (Gorman's) speech made him think of that governor who refused to grant a pardon because he had already granted two pardons to parties from the same county. This speech, he said, was a repetition of one the senator had made recently on the Indian appropriation bill, when he had undertaken to tell senators as to their duty to the country. At that time he (Gorman) had declared that the appropriations were recklessly extravagant. And having thus delivered himself the senator entered the cloakroom, put on his hat and went home. He (Foraker) had expected some particulars of this extravagance, but they were not offered.

Mr. Gorman replied in a jocular style. He said the senator (Foraker) was a new arrival and came as one of the great host from Ohio. He had not been in the senate long. He would learn in time the methods of the cloakroom and that senators would be measured by their associates and their services. The senator (Foraker) was the senior senator from Ohio, the state sending us a president, and yet he was among the first to urge an increase of half a million dollars in the appropriations.

Mr. Foraker had a parting word. He said he had spoken only because the Maryland senator had tried to lecture the Republican side. The senator should not feel alarmed. There would be an economical administration and senators on the Republican side would join hands with him (Gorman) in reducing expenditures. But the new men would at least expect him to draw on his great stores of experience and information. The Maryland senator had professed to have so much knowledge that the newcomers would look to him as a guide in taking the burdens from the people, "whose tribune he assumed to be." Upon Mr. Allison's explanation Mr. Foraker finally withdrew the amendment.

A final vote on the free homestead bill was taken at 3 o'clock and the bill passed 42 to 11.

Senator Aldrich presented the tariff bill to the senate and gave notice that it would be called up on Tuesday, the 18th inst. The time for the bill to take effect is made July 1, 1897, instead of May 1, as provided by the house.

ADMIRAL MEADE.
He Will Be Buried With Military Honors at Arlington.

WASHINGTON, May 5.—Admiral Meade (retired) who died yesterday, was one of the best known officers of the modern navy. He saw hard service before, during and after the civil war, and cruised in all parts of the world on important naval and diplomatic missions. During formed, and from its effects the admiral failed to rally. The burial will be with military honors at Arlington.

Confirmed by the Senate.
WASHINGTON, May 5.—The senate yesterday confirmed the following nominations: Bellamy Storer of Ohio, to be minister to Belgium; Robert E. Patterson of Tennessee, consul general at Calcutta, India; Huntington Wilson of Illinois, second secretary of legation at Tokyo, Japan; George M. Fisk of Ohio, second secretary of embassy at Berlin.

General Miles Leaves for Europe.
WASHINGTON, May 5.—Major General Nelson A. Miles yesterday left the capital on his way to the seat of war in Europe. He was preceded to New York by Captain Maus, his personal aide, and Mr. Dawson, his secretary. The party sailed today from New York on the St. Paul and on arriving on the continent will go straight by rail to Brindisi.

Indiana Postmasters.
WASHINGTON, May 5.—Indiana postmasters were appointed yesterday as follows: Arlington, Alois Geyer Bronner, Stephen Ross; Ethel, John Bennett; Jordanville, S. E. Dobson; Teggardin, Gideon Logan; Vernon, W. A. Harlow.

FROM GRANT'S TOMB.
Mayor of New York Has Bricks to Give to G. A. R. Posts.

NEW YORK, May 5.—Mayor Strong has had stored away in a cell in the basement of the city hall 1,900 bricks from the old tomb of General Grant, which may make him some trouble later on. About a month ago he received a letter from the commander of an Illinois G. A. R. post asking for one of the bricks of the old tomb as a souvenir. The mayor thought if one post wanted such a souvenir it was as well to be prepared for such an emergency. These bricks Mr. Strong intends to give to such posts as may ask for them. As there are 6,396 Grand Army posts in the United States, and it is quite certain that each one will want one of the relics, it will require some smart arithmetic to make both ends meet.

REFORMERS' CONVENTION.
National Municipal League in Session at Louisville.

LOUISVILLE, May 5.—Leaders of reform movements from the principal cities of the country have gathered here to attend the third annual meeting of the National municipal league and the fifth conference for good city government which began today. Greek Cabinet Decides to Fight It Out With the Turks.

PREFERS HIS OWN BRIGADE

Fighting at Velestino Described by a Correspondent With the Turkish Forces.

GREKS REINFORCE THEIR POSITION WITH TROOPS FROM VOLO AND PHARSALOS—THE TURKS CAPTURE KEPHALO.

LONDON, May 5.—The Athens correspondent of The Times says: "The cabinet sat till daybreak (Tuesday) hearing the reports of the ministers from the front and finally resolved to continue the war. General Smolenski has declined to accept the post of chief of staff of the crown prince, as he prefers to remain with his own brigade. The decision of the government is momentous, but it is difficult to say whether it is absolutely final."

VELESTINO.
London Correspondent at the Front Describes the Fighting.

LONDON, May 5.—A correspondent writing from Velestino of the battle there last Friday says the Greeks occupied strong positions. The Turks began the attack under cover of artillery. The response from the Greeks was very feeble. The Turks gradually gained ground and the Greeks began sending a fusillade into their ranks, but they pushed forward and gained summit after summit, and were soon occupying a strong position while waiting the coming up of the rear of the army. He continues:

"The Greeks were holding a precipitous mountain, but the Turks feigning an attack in front, turned the Greek position and forced the enemy to retire to the second line of defense, which she is now holding. The Turks' center remains quietly before one of the enemies' earth works, while the Greek battery is beginning a duel with a battery planted on our right wing."

"Shortly after the Greek fire slackened and gradually ceased. It had been met by the Turkish left with admirable steadiness and courage. Strong Greek reinforcements were brought up, but the Turkish left resisted the onslaught. During the battle the Turkish center was hidden behind a thick wood, which proved an adequate defense. In the morning two Turkish squadrons charged the Greek position. At first they were successful, but meeting with a larger force, strongly entrenched, they suffered heavily. It is impossible not to admire their courage. They appeared absolutely indifferent to danger."

"I visited the trenches when an attack was expected and I found all except the sentinels sleeping quietly. Strong Greek reinforcements have been brought up from Volo and Pharsalos, so that the Turkish force is now much inferior. The distance between the right and left wings has been greatly extended and the general in command has decided to concentrate his troops on a more favorable position farther back."

In Disgrace.
LONDON, May 5.—The correspondent for The Standard at Constantinople says: "Mustapha Pasha, ex-commander at Jannina, has arrived here under escort. It is believed that he has been degraded and will be court-martialed. According to Edhem Pasha's report the Greek army consists, apart from mountaineers, of a mere conglomeration of plowboys, shopboys, brigades, pickpockets and everything except soldiers."

Turks Capture Kephalo.
LONDON, May 5.—The special correspondent for The Times with the Turkish forces at Velestino telegraphs under date of April 30 that the Turks have captured the village of Kephalo, at the foot of the pass, and adding that with the reinforcements their route from Larissa, the Turks would undoubtedly

HOW TO FIND OUT.

Fill a bottle or common water glass with urine and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates a diseased condition of the kidneys. When urine stains linen it is positive evidence of kidney trouble. Too frequent desire to urinate or pain in the back, is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in relieving pain in back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passages. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain passing it or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up many times during the night to urinate. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists price fifty cents and one dollar. For a sample bottle and pamphlet, both sent free by mail, mention the Seymour Republican, and send your full postal address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The proprietors of this paper guarantee its genuineness.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured.

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When the tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result and unless the inflammation can be taken out, and this tube restored to its normal condition or hearing will be destroyed forever, nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness caused by catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Props., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, 75 cents. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

Poisons engendered by food fermenting in a dyspeptic stomach are the direct cause of rheumatism, gout, bronchitis, liver and kidney complaints, asthma, pneumonia and many nervous ailments.

These results are prevented by the use of the Shaker Digestive Cordial, a remedy discovered and prepared by the Shakers of Mount Lebanon, N. Y. It is in itself a food and has power to digest other food taken with it. Thus it rests the diseased stomach and finally masters the worst cases of dyspepsia. It acts promptly and fresh strength and increase of weight soon follows. The first dose taken immediately after eating, abates the pain and distress so dreaded by dyspeptics. Trial bottles—enough to prove its merit—10 cents.

John P. McLean's Great Newspaper.

Without a single exception, there is beyond doubt no greater or more popular newspaper in the United States than the Cincinnati Enquirer; or a more successful publisher than its proprietor, Mr. John R. McLean.

The old-time prices for the Daily Enquirer have been maintained, and its circulation largely increased each year; hard times and cheaper journals failing to arrest its onward march and high appreciation of the public for its true worth and merit.

The Weekly Enquirer at beginning of the campaign year was offered at 50 cents a year, and its circulation increased by the addition of over 200,000 new subscribers; the most substantial and coveted testimonial a publisher could desire.

When asked for the secret of such success, Mr. McLean frankly answers: The Enquirer has no opinions to force upon its patrons, it simply prints the facts and tells the truth that the reader may form his own opinions. By maintaining the price of the paper, more news and greater variety can be furnished, and every class of business interests catered to, which a cheaper journal cannot afford.

The very liberal support given the Enquirer by the public at large, makes incumbent upon the management to serve it faithfully with zeal and enterprise in minor matters as well as those of greater magnitude.

May their wedded life ever be pleasant.

Some are planting corn but a majority of farmers have done very little toward their crops yet on account of wet weather. We had a few warm sunny days last week and farmers made good use of their time. A few fields of melons are up and some have out sweet potato plants.

L. M. Cross's garden is a pleasant sight to see at present it being in such fine shape and forming such a contrast to the fields near it which were made so wet by rains and floods, and though it is May still untouched by the plow.

The Best Remedy for Rheumatism. From the Fairhaven, N. Y., Register.

Mr. James Rowland of this village, states that for twenty-five years his wife has been a sufferer from rheumatism. A few nights ago she was in such pain that she was nearly crazy. She sent Mr. Rowland for the doctor, but he had read of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and instead of going for the physician he went to the store and secured a bottle of it. His wife did not approve of Mr. Rowland's purchase at first, but nevertheless applied the Balm thoroughly and in an hour's time was able to go to sleep. She now applies it whenever she feels an ache or a pain and finds that it always gives relief. He says that no medicine which she had used ever did her as much good. A COSTLY PORTRAIT.

The Price Made Him Gasp, but He Paid and Said Nothing.

Some years ago, when Benjamin Constant came over to this country especially to paint the portrait of a well known New York woman, several other persons took advantage of his being here and gave him orders for their portraits. Among these was a well known man. Shortly after this latter likeness was completed a wealthy westerner who happened to be in this city was entertained at the house of the New Yorker. The westerner saw the portrait and much admired it. "My wife wants me to get my portrait painted," he said. "That's one reason why I'm in New York. I wonder if this French fellow wouldn't do mine too." His host assured him that in all probability the "French fellow" would be only too delighted. Before long the westerner was experiencing all the glory and honor of "sitting for his portrait."

One day some time after this, but before the picture was finished, the westerner was again entertained by his New York friend. The portrait was naturally referred to. "By the way," remarked the westerner, "how much did he charge for your picture?" "Forty-five hundred dollars," was the answer. "Why?" But the westerner was beyond speech. Pale and breathless, he leaned back in his chair, and when he did speak it was simply to gasp forth, "Forty-five hundred dollars!" "Forty-five hundred dollars!" over and over again.

It transpired later that he had made no inquiries as to terms, and that he had never dreamed that the portrait's price would be more than $150. What worried him most was what his wife would say. But the old fellow was game. He first bound the New Yorker over to temporary secrecy, after which he proceeded to go through those sittings to the bitter end without a murmur or a question as to the ultimate cost. Benjamin Constant never knew that the bill for $5,000 (the westerner's portrait was larger than the New Yorker's) that was presented later caused the slightest ripple upon the emotional surface of his patron. But in a certain western home there today hangs a painting the price of which has never yet been revealed to the mistress of the house.—New York Sun.

What She Said.

"Why this look of set despair which has set on your brow for a day or two?" said Tillinghast to Winibidda.

"Miss Pussop won't marry me after giving me what I considered a great deal of encouragement and making me imagine she cared for me."

"So she said 'No' did she?"

"The rejected one shook his head sadly as he made reply:

"I think I could have stood that, but her reply wounded my sensibilities to the quick."

"She did not taunt you with your poverty, surely?"

"Not at all."

"How did she wound your feelings, then?"

"Well, I asked her to marry me, and she never said a word about its being sudden or asking time to consider that sort of thing, but she replied—"

"What?"

"Nixy!"—New York World.
